

“Churchill and De Gaulle: Statesmanship in a Democratic Age”
Alexander Hamilton Institute for the Study of Western Civilization
Clinton, New York

June 18-19, 2015

Organizers:

Professors David & Mary Nichols
Department of Political Science
Baylor University
Waco, Texas

Other participants:

Rachel Alexander
Department of Political Science
Baylor University

Christine Basil
Department of Political Science
Baylor University

Stephen Block
Department of Political Science
Baylor University

Kevin Burns
Department of Political Science
Baylor University

Timothy Burns
Department of Political Science
Baylor University

Jordan Cash
Department of Political Science
Baylor University

David Clinton
Department of Political Science
Baylor University

Clinton Condra
Department of Political Science
Baylor University

Discussion leader:

Professor Daniel Mahoney
Department of Political Science
Augustine Chair in Distinguished Scholarship
Assumption College
Worcester, Massachusetts

Joseph Griffith
Department of Political Science
Baylor University

David Frisk
Alexander Hamilton Institute
Clinton, New York

Corrie Harris
Department of Political Science
Baylor University

Mary Grabar
Alexander Hamilton Institute
Clinton, New York

Marjorie Jeffrey
Department of Political Science
Baylor University

Martha Rice Martini, Esq.
Criminal Appellate Attorney
Salem, MA

Joseph Wysocki
Department of Political Science
Belmont Abbey College
Belmont, North Carolina